

Men's Breakfast - God's Love

As we read today's passage it is important to note that we can do nothing without Christ, the branches can not produce fruit unless connected to the vine. Some may be concerned about being clipped off - read Roman 8:28-39. There is nothing that can separate us from the love of God - nothing. Our prosecutor becomes our defense counsel. We can grieve the Holy Spirit but you can only grieve those who love you. (God, Jesus AND the Holy Spirit love you). You can be out of fellowship but not out of the family. Knowing this how should we treat each other?
