

Men's Breakfast - Your Blindness

The beggar spent many years in darkness preparing to see. How have the “dark times” of your own life prepared you for deeper faith in Jesus?

Pray this week that God would show you one area of your life where you have been blind to his teaching. (This could be a relationship, a habit, or a thought pattern.) Write it here and describe how you believe God wants you to deal with that blindness.