

Men's Breakfast- He is Eternal Life

John 11:25 (NIV) Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life..." and then he goes on to prove that his resurrection power is available NOW! And for that some people wanted to kill him - the hope of salvation for the world. What is your response? He took the bullet meant for you. Does this grace, salvation thing undermine some of your power, your desire to be able to say I did it myself? Get over it you can never be good enough on your own - never. He did it all for you that's why its grace.
