

Men's Breakfast - Betraying Jesus

We do not betray Jesus to the extent that Judas did, but in some respects our actions do betray Him. Judas thought Jesus should be or do something different and was going to make him be what he thought the Messiah should be. How well does your view of Jesus match the man who takes shape in the Gospels? From what sources have you developed your view of Christ? Does your picture limit him? To what degree does your view of Jesus put him under your control?
